

Ode to the Park Brothers...

George and Aaron Park, two fat-faced brothers who think they own the central committee.

Two lonely little fat children who had no friends but each other. Nobody would play with you....I know.

Probably didn't even kiss a girl because you're mean and resentful. You act like leaders, but you're just two lonely pussies.

But, oh, check out their bravery on their blogs. The Park brothers eat their young. Fellow Republicans have been exiled from the central committee because of the vile hatred of the two chunky Park brothers.

One thing I do know for sure...if anyone who disagreed with you approached you on the street, you'd run like the fat sissies you are. You're brave when you blog behind peoples backs.

Better watch that cholesterol and blood pressure boys, hatred and vengeance is not healthy.

We will prevail.
