

Greg Janda is a California native and holds a Bachelor's degree in business. He and his wife Kristine have two children who attend Rocklin schools.

SMALL BUSINESS OWNER FOR 13 YEARS

Greg will bring a businessperson's perspective and financial skills to the City Council. Greg will use his experience in managing budgets to ensure that the City spends money wisely and on the priorities of Rocklin residents.

LEADERSHIP ROCKLIN STEERING COMMITTEE MEMBER FOR 5 YEARS

Greg has helped lead the Rocklin Area Chamber of Commerce's Leadership Rocklin Program for five years, helping about 80 community members learn about city, regional and state issues.

ACTIVE COMMUNITY MEMBER

As a parent, Greg has volunteered in sports activities and in schools, is active in his church and has participated in annual mission trips to Eastern Africa.

"Greg Janda would be a great addition to the City Council and keep our City focused on the priorities of its residents. Greg would bring a businessperson's perspective and the financial skills to help the City best use taxpayer funds, attract jobs and grow our economy."

– Brett Storey,

Rocklin City Councilmember

ROCKLIN LAW ENFORCEMENT SUPPORTS GREG JANDA
