Here It Comes
Higher Taxes in Placer County

Now that the County Board of Supervisors have increased their salaries by 139% (and voters approved it), they can't find money to fix Placer County roads or keep libraries open. So - lucky for us - they have a new plan.

Kirk Uhler is working to increase taxes for transportation. Uhler is putting together an initiative to go to the Placer County voters next year.

His plan has goodies for every city in Placer County that he is poll testing. Uhler is engineering his plan to be so popular that no elected official can oppose it... city council, etc will fall right in place to support Uhler's tax hike plan.

The bottom line is we need to get on this to cut them off at the pass. Ask him why he and the others in support of this, hate poor people so much. After all, it is the poorest among us who will suffer from these new "transportation" taxes.
